CONDITIONS OF SALE.

---

I.—The highest bidder shall be the purchaser, and if any dispute shall arise between two or more bidders, the Lot in dispute to be put up again at the sum last bid, or the Auctioneers may declare the purchaser.

II.—The biddings to be ruled by the Auctioneers.

III.—No person shall retract a bidding without permission of the Auctioneers, who reserve to themselves the right of refusing a bidding, and also the right of withdrawing any lot or lots from the Sale and if there is a reserve upon any Lot or Lots, the right to bid on behalf of the Vendor.

IV.—The purchaser to declare their name and address, and, if required, to pay to the Auctioneers or their Clerk the amount of Purchase Money, immediately on the fall of the hammer and in default of which the Lot or Lots shall be offered again and re-sold.

V.—The Auctioneers reserve the right of deviating from the Catalogue either by amalgamating or dividing the lots as circumstances may require; and also of deviating from the order of Sale.

VI.—The Lots to be under the immediate care of purchasers, who must take the same with all faults, imperfections and errors of description, and remove the same at their own expense and risk on the day of Sale, or before 6 o'clock on THURSDAY, OCTOBER 15th. The descriptions and dates given for the information of intending purchasers but form no guarantee on any lot and purchasers must use their own judgment. No purchase will be allowed to be removed from the premises during the time of Sale, nor until the whole of the Purchase Money is paid.

VII.—The Auctioneers will not be responsible for any Lot or Lots if lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed subsequent to being sold at the Auction.

VIII.—Any damage done to the buildings or decorations, or to any effects, by the removal of any of the Lots, shall be made good by the purchaser, who shall also be responsible for any damage done by agents or others employed by him.

IX.—Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the uncleared Lots will be re-sold, either by Public or Private Sale, and the deficiency (if any), and all expenses attendant thereon, shall be made good by the defaulters at this Auction who shall have no claim for any surplus that may arise.
