July/August 2022 - Pastoral Letter

Every year at annual meetings, we take the opportunity to thank those whose contributions to parish life have been most noticeable and appreciated in the past year. This is quite right and proper and is recorded in the minutes.

Now, I would like to take the opportunity to thank all whose contributions are perhaps not noticed as much, but are just as vital and appreciated. That is to say, all of you. You who attend services in church, you who prepare for and put away after services, who read, serve and who fill the churches with music and flowers, who clean and tidy the buildings, who keep the grounds so beautifully, who enable us to communicate through printed and online means, you who have a kind welcome and word in person, by email or on the phone, not just for strangers and newcomers but for one another, you whose regular giving enables the parish to keep functioning, you whose prayers and compassion is known and felt by many in need of comfort and support.

The gifts of the Holy Spirit are well-represented; enabling us to grow, 'until all of us come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ.' (Ephesians 4. 13). Special thanks too, to those who, during the pandemic have discovered gifts of patience, courtesy, kindness and forgiveness; who have learned softer, gentler ways. May these lessons never be forgotten.

The early church went through many times of trial and tribulation. Paul, writing to the Christians in Philippi, looks beyond his own difficulties and imprisonment, to a more hopeful, positive and rewarding time and urges them all to stick together, to have faith and to stay focussed: 'Let your gentleness be known to everyone.

The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.' (Philippians 4. 5-8)

His message to us is the same. Now is not the time to withdraw or hesitate, to stumble or be downhearted. Despite the pandemic, much has been achieved; all of it to the glory of God and for the encouragement and building up of his people.

So, to paraphrase St Paul, 'Keep up the good work & be of good cheer!'

Adam Clayton
Rector of Myddle

We create readers because when a child becomes a reader, they get the very best chance in life, and every child deserves that.

At Coram Beanstalk we believe that life is better when everyone can read well and express themselves with confidence. That's why we recruit, train and support volunteers to work with primary aged children to help them find a love of reading.

Our volunteers work one-to-one with children who would benefit from dedicated time with an adult who can help them with their reading and communication skills. You will be working in a local primary school two afternoons a week.

We provide training and support throughout your role as a volunteer.

Platinum Jubilee BIG LUNCH

Thank you to all those who attended on a somewhat damp Sunday afternoon and we are grateful that we were able to use the School Hall, rather than sitting on wet picnic blankets eating soggy sandwiches outside! We all enjoyed ourselves and sung the National Anthem with gusto. A film of the Coronation played on the big screen. The winning Jubilee Trifles made by Mike Somers were delicious, as were many other desserts provided. The weather did improve during the afternoon allowing children to run outside

Harmer Hill Chapel

We hear a lot today about the importance of communication. We have multiple methods of communication, post, telephone, email and social media to name a few.

Summer is here and no doubt many of us will be going on holiday. While away we may be sending postcards to family and friends. I wonder if any of us would think to send a post card to God, our heavenly Father.

If we did decide to write to God, what would we say, and how would we say it?

So how do we communicate with God? Do we wait to talk to Him until our theology is in line with the church, until we have agreed with the 39 Articles of Faith belonging to the Anglican Church, or the doctrine of whatever denomination we belong to?

Someone once said, "Theology maintains the purity of the divine stream, but love is the boat that carries us to Jesus."

Lottie, aged six, sent my husband a letter when we were away on holiday to Zambia for a month. It was a message from a child to her father, and it contained some interesting features.

She began by expressing her hope that he would write to her when he got to Zimbabwe. Appalling, don't you think? He wasn't in Zimbabwe; he was in Zambia. Then there was the spelling. At least three mistakes. Spelling still isn't one of Lottie's strong points. There were also three crossings out, and as for the lines of handwriting – well they were all over the place, up and down like a roller coaster. It looked as if she'd been standing in quick sand when she wrote it. There was also no address, date or telephone number. There were lots of kisses, but they don't tell you anything useful, do they?

David was saying all this to me as he read the letter. I thought he wasn't happy about the letter due to the fact he had been an English teacher and expected it to be perfect. But I was wrong.

To David, Lottie's letter was the most wonderful letter ever because it was a communication from a beloved daughter to her loving father. David would not have changed a single letter of it just for the sake of some boring linguistic accuracy. Every kiss counted. Each tongue-protruding attempt to convey love touched his heart in that distant land.

Spelling and grammatical accuracy like theology is important, but God, like David needs to be loved. Don't be afraid to climb onto his knee because you lack

Harmer Hill Queen Elizabeth II Platinum Celebration Team

The Harmer Hill Platinum Celebration Team would like to thank everybody for their wonderful support over the events that were put on during the Platinum Jubilee Celebrations.

These were a Race Night, Afternoon Tea, BBQ, Mini Olympics, Flower filled Planters placed at the entrances to the Village on The Wem Road, Ellesmere Road, and Lower Road, Junior and Senior Treasure Hunts and the planting of the Rowan Tree in the Village hall grounds by Helen Morgan MP.

All of these events were very well attended and I think all participants enjoyed each one of them. Our thanks go to Miss Rose Harris for presenting Helen Morgan MP with a bouquet of flowers on behalf of the Team. The team wish to thank The Myddle, Broughton and Harmer Hill Parish Council for their generous grant of £250 towards the costs of staging the events.

Also thanks to Harmer Hill Village hall Committee for the use of the hall for meetings and staging of the events free of charge. None of these events would be possible without the team that was put together in November 2022 to come up with ideas and ways to celebrate the platinum Jubilee.

Team members were as follows:

Russell Purslow	Sylvia Purslow	Neil Price	Roger Jones
Sue Young	Linda Gregory	Jenny Walsh	Debbie Williams
Alex Harris	Ann Lewis	Maggie Boyle	Thomas Andrew

The Team received extra help and support from the following:

Kelvin Morgan	Paul Young	Marco Busi	Veronica Jones

PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

On Wednesday May 18th the Annual Parish Meeting was held in Harmer Hill Village Hall giving residents the opportunity to meet with Councillors to discuss Parish matters or raise issues of concern. The meeting was chaired by Councillor Marshall Andrew, the new Council Vice-Chairman, as the Council Chairman was unable to attend. However he had prepared an interesting detailed report which was read out by Councillor Andrew.

In his report the Chairman highlighted the range of activities undertaken by the Council in an effort to meet the needs of the community, which included road safety measures, litter and dog fouling control, maintenance of the two play areas and the many footpaths which are well used by residents.

By careful budgeting and the monitoring of expenditure it had not been necessary to seek an increase in the precept which meant that the local element of the Council Tax had not increased. However he was pleased to report that the Council had continued to make grants towards the up-keep of the Village Halls and Church Grounds as well as supporting the publication of the Messenger and small grants had also been given to three local charities.

He pointed out that during the year there had been two resignations from the Council for very valid reasons but it had been possible to co-opt replacement Members, so that once again the Council was at full strength. He wished to extend thanks to all the Members, the Parish Clerk and Shropshire Councillor Brian Williams for their dedicated support throughout the year.

A full copy of the report can be obtained from the Parish Clerk.

In the open session which followed two items were raised:
1. Whether the Council was planning to revisit and up-date the Parish Plan as it was several years since it had been produced. It was agreed to consider this possibility at the next Council meeting.
2. If there had been any indication of the starting date for the highway improvements at the junction of Ellesmere Road and Newton Lane, Harmer Hill.

The Clerk reported that regular checks were made with members of Shropshire Council's Highways Team but they had still not been able to confirm a start date.

In conclusion the Chairman thanked everyone for attending.

JUBILEE

GARDEN — PARTY —

This year's Garden Party took place at Harmer Hill Village on Saturday afternoon 28th May. The event was held with Julia Millington very much in our minds as she and Bob had started the annual Garden Party in their own garden at Jubilee Cottage.

A sunny afternoon saw a good attendance and many sandwiches, cakes and cups of tea were consumed. There was an exuberance of plants for sale as well as jigsaws, books and tombola, raffles and cake stall. Classic cars were also on display.

We are so grateful to everyone who helped set up and run the event which raised a much appreciated £1,300 for Myddle & Broughton church funds
