September 2022 - Pastoral Letter– Love in a Box

During hot weather I was so grateful for cool showers and plenty of cold drinks with ice from the freezer. We take it for granted that water will come when we turn on our tap and that electrical appliances will work to make life easier in extreme temperatures.

It's made me wonder what it's like for those in Eastern Europe who receive the Christmas shoe boxes we pack each autumn. Many of these people have no electricity or personal water supply, queueing to use a communal tap, needing candles on darker days, sharing a bed to keep warm in winter, but they can't turn on a fan when it's hot.

It makes me keener than ever to send lots of shoe boxes packed with simple everyday gifts for children living in such poor conditions. I really hate to think of anyone with no toothbrush or paste and the idea of children having to stay indoors when it snows because they have no warm hat, scarf or gloves is hard to take in. The thought of any child with no soft toy or ball, a girl with no doll or a boy with no toy vehicle so sad.

A shoe box packed with love may be their only gift ever and it's sobering to consider that they may well have no stationery, so notebook, colouring book, pencils, pens and crayons will be treasures. A simple bar of soap and a flannel to wash it off will also be highly valued by someone who cannot shower or have a good soak in a bath.

It also makes me want to send 'home' boxes to be given to mothers struggling to manage their families with no washing line or clothes pegs, hopefully including candles and a wind-up torch for those darker winter months and basic household essentials like a dish cloth and tea towel so they can wash up.

Such ordinary gifts could make an incredible difference to the lives of our European neighbours, and we will be collecting packed boxes here in early November for the Wrexham Teams4u warehouse to deliver in time for Christmas. If you want to find out more about Christmas shoe boxes look on the charity website – www.teams4u.com or contact Jo on 01939 291390 or jothecarwife@hotmail.com

This year we can hear what it's like to hand out the boxes and the impact the love that went into packing them has on the recipients. Dave Cooke, founder of the Teams4u charity has offered to come and talk to us and show pictures about his many experiences helping the poorest of the poor. He will bring leaflets with details of exactly how to pack a box and special stickers (home box or boy/girl age group 3-5, 6-11 or 12+ years) to label them with.

I think Dave's presentation will be memorable so I hope you will join us on Sunday 11th September in Myddle Church at 10.30am. Everyone is welcome!

Jesus said,
"Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me." (From Matthew 25)

The FUN DOG SHOW held in the grounds of Harmer Hill Village Hall on a sunny Saturday afternoon on 23rd July was indeed a great deal of fun. A good number of dogs of different sizes and breed took part, with enthusiastic (mostly!) participation in a variety of competitions. The "Best in Show" award went to Eva, a chocolate Labrador owned by Emily Wada and her daughter Sophie.

Amongst other winners were Tegan from Bomere Heath as the best Junior Handler, and the owner looking most like his dog was Russell
Purslow (everyone agreed on a remarkable likeness!)

Scrumptious teas were served by the ladies of Harmer Hill & District WI.
The tombola was very popular and there was plenty of fun with skittles.

needed. Martha did not.

If we want to be kind to anyone, the first necessity is to attempt to see into the heart of the person we desire to help, then forget all our own plans, and think about what he or she really needs. In other words, we should put aside our own wants, desires and opinions in favour of trying to understand the needs of our neighbour. That is how to get it right every time and that is where true kindness begins.

One of life's great difficulties is knowing what to do for the best in any of the situations we find ourselves in. Most of us want to be known to be a kind sort of person and many of us will go to great lengths to show kindness to someone in need. We want to be kind to people but when given the choice we prefer to be kind to them in our own way, and should it happen that our way of being kind is not the way that is needed, we get it wrong, easily take offence, think that we are not appreciated and deny the real needs of whoever we want to help.

In the story of Mary and Martha (Luke 10:38-42), Jesus shows us that if we want to be kind to someone, the first necessity is to attempt to look into the heart of the person we desire to help, to see what they really need. Having done this, we should then forget all our own plans and think only of what can be done to meet the needs of the person we want to help.

Martha was a kind person. She wanted to get things right, but she had a problem. The sort of kindness she wanted to show to an important guest was the wrong type of kindness. Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem where he was going to be put to death.

He knew that this was God's will but he was struggling with the need to be obedient. When Jesus arrived at the home of Mary and Martha, it was a great day and Martha fussed around preparing a great spread, and inviting many guests but that was exactly what Jesus did not want. All he wanted was a quiet, calm place and an hour or two away from the crowds. Mary wanted to give him that, but Martha, in her kindness was doing her best to destroy what Jesus really needed.

Mary thought about and understood what Jesus really

The group meets every Thursday evening, virtually on your doorstep, at Mary Webb School, Pontesbury during term times as well as the second Saturday of every month.

We offer a short free introduction (3 weeks) to carving, with tools and wood provided for beginners and regular workshops with one of the UK's recognised top master carvers.
